Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation Participates in Alabama's 55+ Workforce Leadership Forum

HUNTSVILLE, AL – September 2, 2008 – Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation (INTUITIVE) was honored to be invited to participate as the Industry representative in an Opinion Leader Forum on Investing in Experience: Alabama's 55+ Workforce Initiative, held in Montgomery, Alabama on August 7, 2008. Juanita Phillips, Director of Human Resources for INTUITIVE, participated in the Forum on behalf of the company, winner of AARP's 50 Best Places for Workers over 50 in 2007. The day also included a presentation from Director and Associate Research Economist, University of AL. Joining representatives from Alabama Office of Workforce Development, Alabama Department of Senior Services, National Federation of Independent Business, and an Adjunct PhD HRM Professor, Ms. Phillips participated in discussion around what the state is doing to address the workforce changes that are upon us. The panel discussed ideas around what needs to be done to prepare for the future in which the 55+ workforce will be increasing, the under-age-24 segment will be shrinking, and at the same time, the state's economy will be expanding with projections of significant job growth.

Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation (INTUITIVE), a certified 8(a) Company and Small and Disadvantaged Business, provides a myriad of services in programmatic support, systems engineering, product development, production systems support, rapid prototyping, and technology management solutions to the Department of Defense, government agencies, and commercial companies.
