Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation Wins 2008 Best Places to Work Award

HUNTSVILLE, AL – April 22, 2008 – Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation (INTUITIVE) was awarded the 2008 Best Places to Work Award for Huntsville/Madison County at a ceremony held on April 22, 2008 at Huntsville’s new Westin Hotel. The Best Places to Work award was formerly called the Family-Friendly Business of the Year Award, which INTUITIVE won in 2007. INTUITIVE won in the 75-249 employees category. The award was accepted by Rey Almodóvar, P.E., INTUITIVE’s CEO, on behalf of all the employees. After the ceremony Mr. Almodóvar stated,

"Receiving the Best Places to Work Award for 2008 validates our commitment to our most precious resource, our employees. We are extremely proud of such recognition and share our pride with our employees and their families."

The Best Places to Work Awards are hosted each year by the National Children’s Advocacy Center, the Huntsville/Madison County Chamber of Commerce and the North Alabama Society for Human Resource Management. Sponsors of the program believe that “Best Places to Work” companies contribute significantly to the economic success and quality of life of the Huntsville/Madison County Community.

Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation (INTUITIVE), a certified 8(a) Company and Small and Disadvantaged Business, provides a myriad of services in programmatic support, systems engineering, product development, production systems support, rapid prototyping, and technology management solutions to the Department of Defense, government agencies, and commercial companies.
