Austin High School Student Receives Bob Ryland Scholarship

HUNTSVILLE, AL – July 12, 2005 – Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation (INTUITIVE) presented the 2005 Bob Ryland Scholarship to Mr. Rosalio Mendoza, a 2005 graduate at Austin High School in Decatur, AL. INTUITIVE reaches out to the young Hispanic community by providing scholarships to deserving Hispanic students that have intentions of pursuing a college degree in engineering or physical sciences. The scholarship is awarded based on academic achievement, personal traits, extracurricular activities and leadership potential. INTUITIVE established the Bob Ryland Scholarship in 2003 to honor the memory of Mr. Robert K. Ryland, a friend, mentor and role model to A.R. (Rey) Almodóvar, INTUITIVE's founder, president and chief executive officer. Upon the scholarship award Rey Almodóvar stated;

“We are honored to continue Mr. Ryland’s legacy and celebrate the way he lived by reaching out to support and mentor the youth. His traits of honesty, respect and integrity serve as an example to all of us at INTUITIVE. I wish Mr. Mendoza success in all his endeavors and trust that he will serve as a mentor to others in the future.”
