Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation Receives ISO 9001:2000 Certification

HUNTSVILLE, AL – July 31, 2007 – Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation (INTUITIVE) is pleased to announce its receipt of the ISO 9001:2000 certification by the National Standard Authority of Ireland. INTUITIVE received the certification after an accredited third party audit was conducted to measure INTUITIVE's processes against the rigorous ISO standards. INTUITIVE believes that customer satisfaction is the key to its future and that this is based on highly reliable delivery of quality products and services. Accordingly, INTUITIVE has embraced the international standard for quality management – ISO 9001:2000.

After notification of the award Linda Feres, INTUITIVE's Director of Quality, stated, "We are very proud to have received certification of our Quality Management System to ISO 9001:2000. All of INTUITIVE's employees have worked very hard to ensure excellence not only in our quality management system but throughout our entire business management systems."

ISO 9001:2000, the international quality standard accepted by the majority of the world, speaks to all quality-related activities in an organization and helps ensure customers' needs are met.

Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation (INTUITIVE), a certified 8(a) Company and Small and Disadvantaged Business, provides a myriad of services in programmatic support, systems engineering, product development, production systems support, rapid prototyping, and technology management solutions to the Department of Defense, government agencies, and commercial companies.
