HUNTSVILLE, AL – October 19, 2005 - Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation (INTUITIVE) announces their rank as #157 on the 2005 Inc. 500 list of fastest growing privately owned firms in the U.S. Inc. Magazine is the premier publication for small and medium-sized businesses and has compiled listings of the fastest-growing private companies in the U.S. for the past twenty-four years.

INTUITIVE's Vice President and COO, Harold R. (Hal) Brewer, stated "In a service industry, your employees are your business. And this tremendous award is a tribute to our employees and their families."

Mr. Brewer further stated that "I see no reason why North Alabama cannot continue to grow as a regional high technology center. To support our community's growth, this past year we began aggressively initiating summer intern and co-op student programs. In addition, our employees are active in supporting our schools in developing our future business and technology leaders through programs such as Junior Achievement.

We owe this honor to our customers. The Huntsville community is very small business friendly. Loyal customers are an essential element of a small business' growth and we are fortunate to have great customers."
