INTUITIVE* Contract Administrator CPCM Certified

HUNTSVILLE, AL – March 2010 – Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation (INTUITIVE) is pleased to announce that one of its contract administrators, Christina Chambliss, has passed the Certified Professional Contracts Manager (CPCM) exam. This certification is only held by less than 15% of the National Contracts Management Association (NCMA) members nationwide, and covers all facets of contracts management, both within the government and commercial arenas. The 180 question covers both contract management (70%), and general business (30%). Candidates who achieve certification have met rigorous training, experience, and education standards.

According to the NCMA, those who are CPCM certified, "...are professional designations of distinction, and carry the respect of their peers in the profession." INTUITIVE is proud of Mrs. Chambliss's achievements, and her initiative to elevate her individual standards and distinguish her as an expert in her field of performance.

Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation (INTUITIVE), a certified 8(a) Company and Small and Disadvantaged Business, supplies a wide range of services including programmatic support, systems engineering, product development, production systems support, rapid prototyping, and technology management solutions to the Department of Defense, government agencies, and commercial companies.
