INTUITIVE* Employee and Spouse Honored by Spirit of America Festival Committee

HUNTSVILLE, AL – April 24, 2011 – Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation (INTUITIVE) is proud to announce INTUITIVE employee, Command Sgt. Maj. (R) John Perry and his wife Brenda were named as recipients of the Support for Military Families Award by the Spirit of America Festival Committee. They are not only recipients of the inaugural award being given by the Festival this year, but the award has also been named in their honor and officially called the “CSM John and Brenda Perry Support for Military Families Award.”

As stated by Festival Committee Chairman Dave Carney during a press conference at the Decatur City Hall to announce this year's award winners Committee, the CSM John and Brenda Perry Support for Military Families Award "is to recognize the significant contributions, suffering and deprivation that military families endure, all in the support of their family members who serve in our nation's Armed Forces.”

INTUITIVE would like to congratulate Mr. Perry and his wife Brenda for the prestigious recognition and honor they received for all the efforts they are involved in. To have an award named in their honor is evidence of the true value and difference they make in their community.

Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation (INTUITIVE) supplies a wide range of services including programmatic support, systems engineering, product development, production systems support, rapid prototyping, and technology management solutions to the Department of Defense, government agencies, and commercial companies.
