

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rolling Hills Elementary School's 2011 Giveaway Drawing

HUNTSVILLE, AL – April 8, 2011 – Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation (INTUITIVE) participated in the incentive drawing for Rolling Hills Elementary School students. This event was in honor of Rolling Hill students, grades 3rd -5th who finished the Alabama Reading and Math Tests (ARMT) and the Stanford Achievement Tests. The tests were given over seven school days, for three hours a day. Students who exemplified focus and discipline during testing were rewarded by partaking in a drawing for six new bicycles (including helmets and knee pads), and six gift cards to Phil Sandoval's, and six gift cards to Walmart.

INTUITIVE has been supporting Rolling Hills Elementary school for the past six years in their efforts to promote education. Juanita Phillips, INTUITIVE's Human Resource Director, attended the awards ceremony April 8 to draw the students' names and congratulate them in their achievements. INTUITIVE is proud of the students of Rolling Hills for achieving their goals and will continue to promote the school's mission to provide a safe, orderly environment where lifelong learning is the priority.

Intuitive Research and Technology Corporation (INTUITIVE) supplies a wide range of services including programmatic support, systems engineering, product development, production systems support, rapid prototyping, and technology management solutions to the Department of Defense, government agencies, and commercial companies.